On the motion to fill the blank in the the license for Coffee houses Mr. Wilson moved to make it three hundred dollars, the same as last year, jundred dollars, the same as last year, which motion was adopted.

The ordinance having been read a second and third time, was adopted.

The Sunday ordinance in relation to the sale of ale, beer and liquor, was read, and a motion to reject was lost, after which the ordinance was read a second time. On the motion to fill the blank as it closing time, Mr. Egerter objected to fixing any time. It was a restriction on business that was unjust. Mr. Blair moved that the hour be fixed at eleven o'clock, and stated that the most prominent saloon keeper of his acquaintance expressed a desire that the Council fix eleven o'clock as the latest hour at which to close.

A motion to adjourn did not prevail.

Mr. Egerter again entered a vigorous protest against the measure as an abridgement of the liberty of the citizen.

The hour of 11 o'clock was then adopted as the hour of closing, and the hour of opening.

The balance of the ordinance was a second as the continue of the ordinance was a second and the carliest hour of topening.
